

careers
businesses neighborhoods

October 2, 2026

Commercial Corridor Resilience Program RFP
EPIN: 80126P0020

ADDENDUM # 3

Pursuant to Sections 3-02(i) and 3-16(o)(2) of the Procurement Policy Board (PPB) Rules, the New York City Department of Small Business Services is issuing Addendum #3 to the Commercial Corridor Resilience Program RFP, EPIN: 80126P0020.

This addendum includes the following information:

Section I: Subcontractor Expression of Interest

Section I: Subcontractor Expression of Interest

See page 2 of this addendum for a list of vendors who expressed interest in subcontracting.

Subcontractor	Contact	Phone Number	Email	Services
Lifting While Climbing LLC dba Keyla Consulting & Company	Keyla Marte	718-640-7924	hello@keylaconsulting.com	Fellow and CBDO host site recruitment, including outreach to organizations in MID, LMI, flood-risk, and Designated Areas of Concern neighborhoods. Citywide outreach and digital marketing to CBDOs and small businesses to encourage program participation. Program communications and cohort engagement, including group messaging, networking events, and workshop promotion. Technical assistance workshops for CBDOs on operations, project management, and organizational capacity. Design and production of corridor emergency information sheets and other constituent-facing materials, with multilingual and ADA-accessible options. Event planning and logistics support for in-person sessions in New York City.
Incident Management Solutions, Inc. (IMS)	Zachary Goldfarb	877-467-0147 ext. 1	Zach@IMScmd.com	Potential emergency preparedness / resilience technical advisory subcontractor.
The Gift Agency, LLC	Favour Olorunfemi	917-892-1654	Hello@thegiftagency.com Qsa@thegiftagency.com	Cohort program support, training and workshop facilitation, participant recruitment and engagement, community outreach, strategic communications and program marketing, program coordination, and technical assistance.
Franglais Management	Jessica Dolcy	917-475-6347	Jessica@FranglaisMGMT.com	Curriculum and training development; workshop facilitation and cohort-based learning; individual coaching and technical assistance; organizational strategy and operational assessments; stakeholder engagement; research, data collection, monitoring and evaluation; reporting; and culturally responsive program design.